Billy Bland

Administrative Dean Memphis School of Preaching

Billy Bland was born in Oxford, Mississippi. An alumnus of Memphis School of Preaching (1977), he returned in January, 1992 as a full-time instructor.

He was graduated from high school in 1972 and attended Southern Christian University from 1978-1994. He has attended Co-Lin Junior College and Northwest Junior College in Mississippi. He also earned the Graduate Diploma from Memphis School of Preaching in 1991.

Brother Bland married Terry Collums in 1974, and they have two children, Anna and Jared, and one grandchild, Abby Haynes. Brother Bland served in the United States Army from 1971-73 as a Army Medic, and until entering Memphis School of Preaching in 1975, worked in Mississippi.

Brother Bland served as located preacher for the churches in Henning, Tennessee (1977-78); Monticello, Mississippi (1978-82); and Coldwater, Mississippi (1978-1994). He preached part-time in Independence, Mississippi, while teaching in the Memphis School of Preaching. He began serving as Dean of Students for Memphis School of Preaching in 1992, and presently heads campaign work for the School which entails several campaigns per year. He is director of the mission work in Murmansk, Russia, and coordinates quarterly mission trips to that city.

He served as editor of "The Bible Beacon"; has held meetings in several states, Canada and Russia; spoken on Spiritual Sword, Memphis School of Preaching, Mississippi Annual, and other lectureships. He has experience both in television and radio preaching. He serves as one of the elders of the Coldwater Church of Christ in Coldwater, Mississippi, where he formerly preached for 12 years.

Brother Bland teaches New and Old Testament, Gospel Plan of Salvation, Premillennialism: True or False; The Preacher and His Work; etc. He is much involved in student activities as Dean.
